

NACEP 2016 Washington Policy Seminar

Implications of the Every Student Succeeds Act (ESSA) on Dual and Concurrent Enrollment Programs

March 30-31, 2016

Hall of the States, Conference Room 333
444 North Capitol Street, NW | Washington, DC 20001

Wednesday, March 30

- 9:00-9:15 Amy Williams, Chair, NACEP State Policy Leadership Committee and Dual Enrollment Program Manager, Montana University System, Office of the Commissioner of Higher Education @MUSdualcredit
- Welcome
- 9:15-10:00 Adam Lowe, Executive Director, NACEP @NACEPtweets
- Introduction to ESSA & Federal Policy Environment
- 10:00-10:15 Break
- 10:15-10:45 Gregory Kienzl, Senior Research Associate, Policy, ACT @ACT
- ACT's Policy Work on Dual and Concurrent Enrollment
- 10:45-11:00 Break
- 11:00-11:30 Networking Activity
- 11:30-12:00 Julia Martin, Legislative Director, Brustein & Manasevit, PLLC @BrumanGroup
- Building Relationships with Policymakers

-
- 12:00-1:00 Lunch
- 1:00-1:45 Steve Voytek, Government Relations Manager, Advance CTE @CTEWorks
Sean Lynch, Legislative and Public Affairs Manager, Association for Career and Technical Education @actecareertech
- Perkins Act Reauthorization, Emerging Career Pathways and CTE Initiatives
- 1:45-2:00 Break
- 2:00-2:45 Thomas Harnisch, Director of State Relations and Policy Analysis
Makese Motley, Assistant Director of Federal Relations,
American Association of State Colleges and Universities @AASCUPolicy
- Reimagining Federal Financial Aid and Trending Higher Education Policy Issues
- 2:45-3:00 Break
- 3:00-3:45 Yuanxia Ding, Senior Policy Advisor to the Under Secretary,
US Department of Education
Ian Foss, Program Specialist, Policy Liaison & Implementation,
US Department of Education, Office Federal Student Aid @usedgov
- Pell Experiment for Dual Enrollment
- 3:45-4:00 Break
- 4:00-4:30 Reflection Activity
- 4:30-6:30 Networking Reception Sponsored by Dualenroll.com @Dualenroll
Location: Johnny's Half Shell
Immediately to your right as you exit Hall of the States

Thursday, March 31

- 9:00-9:15 Adam Lowe, Executive Director, NACEP @NACEPtweets
- Day Two: Setting the Stage for the Day
- 9:15-9:45 Brenda Calderon, Education Policy Analyst, National Council of La Raza @NCLR
- ESSA and the Success of English Language Learners (Title III)
- 9:45-10:00 Break
- 10:00-10:30 Zephranie Buetow, Legislative Counsel, Sen. Gary Peters (D-MI) @SenGaryPeters
- The Making Education Affordable and Accessible Act and Congressional Interest in Dual and Concurrent Enrollment

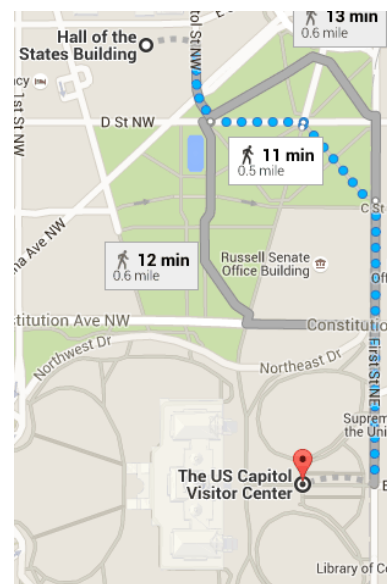

-
- 10:30-10:45 Break
- 10:45-11:15 Rachel Bird Niebling, Senior Policy & Advocacy Associate, Alliance for Excellent Education @All4Ed
- ESSA Impact on High Schools
- 11:15-11:45 Marie O'Hara, Associate Director, State Policy and Implementation Support, Achieve, Inc. @AchieveInc
- State Public Reporting and Accountability Systems for High Schools
- 11:45-12:30 Lunch
- 12:30-1:00 David Chodak, Associate Director of Advocacy, National Association of Secondary School Principals @NASSP
- ESSA Professional Development (Title II) & New Block Grants for Student Support and Academic Enrichment (Title IV)
- 1:00-1:15 Wrap-up

2:00-3:00 Congressional Briefing: Showcase of Dual and Concurrent Enrollment Programs and Policies: Innovative Approaches to College Access and Affordability
 In conjunction with ACT and Jobs for the Future, NACEP presents this congressional briefing open to the public featuring innovative programs and policy from across the country.

Speakers

- Zephranie Buetow, Office of Senator Gary Peters at United States Senate (D-MI)
- Patrick Cannon, Purdue University North Central (IN)
- Scott Frein, ACT
- Elizabeth Grant, Jobs for the Future
- Adam Lowe, National Alliance of Concurrent Enrollment Partnerships
- Armella Smith, Shelby County Schools (TN)
- Lorelee Stevens, Johnson County Community College (KS)
- Amy Williams, Montana University System

Location: Capitol Visitor's Center (1st St. & East Capitol St.), Room 201
Please bring photo identification and allow for extra time passing through security.