College in the Schools English Literature Teacher Resources

Welcome to the CIS Literature Teacher Resources.

This site is being constructed by the teachers who make up the staff of College in the Schools Literature as well as by Professor Toni McNaron, the University faculty coordinator for the program, and Carroll Felegy, the Faculty Assistant for the program. This site is intended to foster exchanges of ideas and practices so that the program will serve the students taking the course in ever-better ways. The site also attempts to keep
